

Clark County School District Virtual Language Camps for English Language Learner Students

Language Camp Overview

The English Language Learner Division (ELLD) is hosting virtual language-enrichment camps for English language learners (ELLs) during the month of June 2020. Join us for this enrichment opportunity focused on supporting academic learning and language development for students. Families may express interest by completing the enrollment form using the link below or by phone no later than June 10, 2020. ELLD staff will contact families to provide additional information and complete registration.

- Phone: (702) 799-2137

Participation enrollment is limited to 100 students per virtual camp, so please join now!

Language Camp Opportunities

Language Camp will focus on building students' academic language in the four language domains of listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Enrichment opportunities in each language domain are offered for ELLs to:

- Hear, process, and interpret spoken text (listening domain)
- Communicate ideas verbally (speaking domain)
- Interpret and understand written text (reading domain)
- Express thoughts and opinions through written communication for a variety of reasons and audiences (writing domain)

Language Camps will meet daily for eight sessions from:

- Monday, June 15, 2020, through Thursday, June 18, 2020, and
- Monday, June 22, 2020, through Thursday, June 25, 2020
